

ASSA 2020 REGISTERED Match Sanctioning Process

The process for sanctioning a registered (non-regional) competition is as follows:

- Submit the match program to ASSA for review at least 2 months (when possible) in advance of the match.
- Provide a projection of the attendance for each discipline (3-position or prone and F-SBR)
- ASSA will review the match program within 1 week and will provide notification if approved or if modifications to the program are required.
- ASSA will work with each Match Director to publicize the match via our website, social media and also multiple web sites associated with smallbore rifle competition.
- Within 1 month of the conclusion of the match, the Match Director is to submit the match report, match results, ASSA registration fees, ASSA membership applications (and collected fees) and any protests lodged during the match.
 - ASSA registration fees for a REGISTERED competition is $3 per competitor
- ASSA reserves the right to limit the amount of registered matches conducted on an annual basis and/or in geographic areas.

All of the forms for match reporting are in electronic format and are located for download from the ASSA website. The following link will take you directly to the downloads section:
